NPPF clause 100 (2018 version) sets out the measures of 'local significance' to be used in demonstrating why a Local Green Space is special to the community. The Council's assessment claims that the local significance of tranquillity is not demonstrated. In July 2020, Nanpantan Ward Residents' Group conducted a survey of residents' use of the land and, in an open question, our residents were asked why they valued the field and 22 of the 79 respondents mentioned tranquillity [1]. This is a clear demonstration of local significance.
