

EDUCATIONAL VISITS CHARNWOOD MUSEUM

INFORMATION FOR TEACHERS & SCHOOL STAFF

- Hands-on History (Key Stages 1,2&3)

A range of handling sessions involving a mixture of original and replica artefacts and objects. A variety of historical topics can be catered for including Invaders, Tudors, Medieval Realms, Victorians, etc.

- Specially Tailored Educational Sessions (Key Stages 1,2&3)

We aim to provide sessions to cover individual schools' particular needs on a variety of topics including geology, natural history, archaeology, local history etc. Just call to enquire whether we can help you.

- Interactive Tours (Key Stages 1,2&3)

Take a tour of the museum with hands-on experiences to help bring it alive.

- Independent Visits

Take an independent visit with your class with support from the education officer.

All above sessions are delivered by knowledgeable session leaders with experience in working with a range of age groups and special needs.

TEACHERS

- Do you see the potential of Charnwood Museum as an excellent educational resource?
- Would you like to contribute to the development of education provision by sharing your ideas and suggestions for topics and sessions to run at the museum?
- Would you like the provision at Charnwood to reflect your needs?

Please call the Education Officer to find out how you can contribute.
