Email: licensing@charnwood.gov.uk

The Licensing team authorises small lotteries (e.g. sweepstakes, draws, etc) for societies who wish to raise money for mainly charitable, sports and cultural activities. Licences are issued for the calendar year and require payment of a fee. Information regarding current fees applicable can be obtained by using the contact details provided above to log on to our website or contact us.

Societies or other charitable organisations wishing to carry out street or house to house collections must obtain a permit from the Council. Street collections are subject to restrictions on the number taking place at any one time.
