

Loughborough - Gembloux Twinning Group

- Gembloux is an attractive French speaking town south of Brussels
- It is a small but friendly group at both ends
- We visit each other alternate years, travelling by Eurostar or car
- Our next visit will be the 2nd - 7th June 2011
- The journey takes less than 7h

- When we're there, we mostly stay with Belgian hosts who organise meals and visits for us - we have an extremely pleasant time!
- We have been to Brussels and Waterloo as well as other places of interest, played petanque, drank beer, had meals out and enjoyed barbeques

- There's the opportunity to speak French if you feel confident enough. However it is not compulsory or necessary. The Belgians for the most part speak some English

- When the Belgians visit us, we are the hosts and again some French can be spoken
- As a group we organise activities for them locally, paid for by group funds.
- We have two fundraising parties a year - the next one is a Belgian food evening on the 6th November - £7 per person, bring some beer!
