

Open Weekend in Charnwood

"Celebrating the 2012 Games Together"

Supported by Charnwood Arts and Picnic in the Park

Summer Reading Challenge: Circus Skills in the Park!

Friday 22nd July 1.30pm - 3.30pm
Queens Park, Loughborough

'Have-a-go' Circus Skills workshop for all the family, but especially children participating in the Summer Reading Challenge. An opportunity for children to sign up for the SRC (Summer Reading Challenge).

Celebrating the Games Together

Saturday 23th July 11am - 5pm
Queens Park, Loughborough

Join us for a fantastic family afternoon in Queen's Park, Loughborough. Charnwood Borough Council have Teamed Up with Charnwood Arts to bring you a special Open Weekend 'Picnic in the Park' event.

Join In with Charnwood Arts' Giant Rangoli and Tree Dressing Activities

Get Busy with Dean 'The Art Wizard' to make sporting sculptures from re-cycled materials

Relax And Listen or Boogie to the sweet sounds of Ska-Amanga and other local bands

Marvel at Bill Brookman's Pirate Ship antics as it sails through the park and Join Bill's special sports day with an arty twist!

Delight in Bollywood and contemporary Indian dance.

Marvel at the dance and drumming skills of Yaye Dib Sabar and Diene Waaw Waaw Sagna from Senegal

Watch Out for the Grand Theatre of Lemmings and their Mechanical Morris Men and Bouncing Bunnies!

Have a BIG Play with the Mini Monsters play area!

Sporting activities and demonstrations from Loughborough Lions Volleyball Club, the Wreake Runners and Loughborough Leys and Hoton Trinity Badminton Clubs.

Fill Up with food, Shop at the stalls and Be Inspired by local information!

Act It Out with Active Together's Zumba, Urban Rebound and Pole Fitness activities! ...and it's free!

Nottingham Concert Band

Sunday 24th July 2-3.30pm
Queens Park, Loughborough

Loughborough

