3.4 Interpreting the rules on delegation	3-2
3.5 Local choice responsibilities	3-3
3.6 Advisory bodies and working parties	3-4
3.7 Delegation to and from other local authorities	3-7

3.1 Council responsibilities and executive responsibilities

The law divides the Council's work into three categories:

- Council responsibilities these are the responsibility of full Council but can be delegated to committees or officers.
- Executive responsibilities these are the responsibility of the Leader but can be allocated to Cabinet, Cabinet committees, Cabinet members or officers.
- Local choice responsibilities it is up to the Council whether these are Council responsibilities or Executive responsibilities.

3.2 Delegation of responsibilities

Full Council can delegate some of their responsibilities to committees and officers and the Leader can delegate some of his or her responsibilities to the Cabinet, committees of the Cabinet, single Cabinet members and officers. Details of this are in Sections 4, 5 and 8. Full Council and the Leader cannot delegate to each other.

At the annual meeting of full Council, the Leader will submit a report setting out the allocation of functions made by him or her. The report will contain the following information:

- the size of the Cabinet and the names of the Councillors appointed to the Cabinet
- the extent of any functions delegated to individual Cabinet members, including details of the limitation on their authority
- the responsibilities and constitution of any Cabinet committees and the names of the Cabinet members appointed to them

• the nature and extent of any delegation to officers with details of any limitation on that delegation.

The Leader may amend the size and composition of the Cabinet and the scheme of delegation relating to Executive functions at any time during the year. To do so, the Leader must give written notice to the Chief Executive and to the person or body concerned. The Chief Executive will present a report to the next ordinary meeting of the Council setting out the changes made by the Leader.

3.3 How delegation works

A body or person can at any time take back responsibilities they have delegated or decide to delegate them on certain conditions.

Officers do not have to use their delegated powers: they can ask the body or person that delegated them to decide.

The Chief Executive, directors and heads of service who have had something delegated to them can authorise other officers to do it on their behalf (unless it was delegated on condition that they do it themselves).

When exercising delegated powers an officer shall always have regard to the requirements of the Constitution, the financial, legal and human resource implications of the decision and shall consult with staff in another service area if the decision is likely to impact on the work of that service area.

Any substantive or significant decision and the reasons for that decision shall be recorded in an appropriate manner.

The Chief Executive may authorise one officer to exercise the delegated powers of another officer (or exercise those delegated powers him or herself) in the absence of the officer holding the delegated powers. In addition, directors may exercise the delegated powers of any head of service in their directorate in the absence of that head of service if no sub-delegations have been put in place by the head of service and there is a need for a decision to be taken prior to the return of the head of service.

3.4 Interpreting the rules on delegation

When a responsibility is delegated in this Constitution, so is the authority to do anything necessary to carry it out (unless it was forbidden when the responsibility was delegated).

The exercise of delegated powers should involve each case being considered on its merits and that the decision taker should exercise discretion where that is appropriate.

3.5 Local choice responsibilities

The Council has allocated local choice functions as follows.

(b) Housing Management Advisory Board

The Council has established a Housing Management Advisory Board to promote tenant and leaseholder engagement in decisions relating to the Council's housing stock.

The Housing Management Advisory Board will be composed of:

A member cannot take over from their substitute or hand over to them part of the way through. Substitutes cannot appoint substitutes of their own. If a member wants to send a substitute, they must tell the Head of Governance & HR before the meeting.

Any member can resign from the Board by giving notice to the relevant director. Appointments to vacancies will be made in the same way as the original appointment and will be for the remainder of the resigning member's term of office.

The Chair of the Housing Management Advisory Board will be appointed annually by the Board from among the tenant/leaseholder members. The Board may appoint a Vice-chair from among its members.

- matters enabling tenant scrutiny and challenge as part of delivering co-regulation of the housing landlord service;
- performance of the housing landlord function.

Where those reports relate to items which will be submitted to the Council's Cabinet, the comments and recommendations of the Board will be submitted to Cabinet with the officer report. The Chair or Vice-chair of the Board will have the right to address Cabinet to present the Board's comments and recommendations.

Further meetings may be called under the relevant provisions within the Constitution, but any business to be considered by the Committee must be in accordance with its consultative roles as set out above.

Any consultation responses made by the Committee should be collective submissions, arrived at and agreed in accordance with the relevant meeting procedures within the Constitution.

The Committee cannot commission or request reports from officers, other than as may be required to assist it with business being undertaken in its consultative roles.
