

Self Assessment Form A

Do I Need Planning Permission For An Alteration or Extension Attached To My House?

(this includes conservatories, garages, windows etc.) (Class A)

If you live in a flat, maisonette, mobile home or wish to develop a commercial property please contact the planning department as this form will not apply to you.

This form does not determine the requirement of Building Regulations Approval which comes under different legislation.

From 1st October 2008 an extension or addition to your home will be considered to be permitted development, not needing planning permission if you answer “NO” to ALL of the following questions, comply with the following CONDITIONS (A, B and C) and there are no planning restrictions removing such rights on your property. For information see “Guidance” overleaf or for more information refer to our website. Charnwood Borough Council - Extending Your Home

Disclaimer: The information and advice contained in this form is NOT a formal determination under S192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. If you require a written determination on the requirement for planning permission an application for a Certificate of Lawful Proposed Development is required to be submitted with the relevant fee and documentation. Form 15 together with guidance can be downloaded from our website Charnwood Borough Council - Downloadable Forms or you can also make an online application through the Planning Portal . Applications for Planning Permission can also be submitted this way. To view the legislation please follow this link to The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (Amendment) (No. 2) (England) Order 2008 (Refer to Class A)
Note: If you wish your proposal to be registered please return a copy of this completed form then we will record the information in our database and display on our website. Guidance: The term "original house" means the house as it was first built or as it stood on 1 July 1948 (if it was built before that date). Although you may not have built an extension to the house, a previous owner may have done so and you should check that there are no restrictive conditions on any planning decision relating to the property. Please follow this link to our interactive maps where you can check planning history, if "Permitted Development Rights" have been removed or if your property is in a Conservation Area or is a Listed Building. If your house is a Listed Building then Listed Building Consent is likely to be required even if planning permission is not necessary. Our Building Control department has also created a series of Self assessment forms for you determine whether or not the work you are intending to carry out is exempt from Building Regulations requirements.
