

Matter 4 Written Statements Addendum – Mr Richard Guise (097)

On 5th December 2022 the Communities Secretary Michael Gove announced that the Levelling-up and Regeneration Bill would be amended to abolish mandatory house-building targets. Since mandatory targets for Charnwood (and, subsequently those for Leicester) formed a significant basis for the Charnwood Local Plan, shouldn't the current plan be immediately abandoned and a new one started with different (and, one would hope, lower) targets?
