

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Charnwood Borough Council

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This statement sets out Charnwood Borough Council's actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to its business and to put in place steps that are aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in its own business or its supply chains. This statement relates to actions and activities during the financial year 1 April 2023 to 31 March 2024.
- 1.2 As part of the public sector, Charnwood Borough Council recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to slavery and human trafficking. We have a zero-tolerance approach to any form of non-ethical practices. The Council is committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities, frontline activities, and to ensuring that its supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking. The Council also works with local safeguarding boards to share best practice and to enable effective communication between relevant bodies, including law enforcement, local authorities, health care bodies and local groups.

2. Organisational Structure & Supply Chains

- 2.1 This statement covers the activities of Charnwood Borough Council. Charnwood Borough Council is a Local Authority situated in the county of Leicestershire. The Council manages a wide range of services which are delivered both directly by the Council and through external organisations. This statement is designed to cover all aspects of our statutory responsibility and discretionary services, including partnership working with other agencies and through commissioned work with external contractors. We recognise our key role in tackling modern slavery, this includes identification and referral of victims, supporting victims, disrupting activity, and ensuring our supply chains are free from modern slavery.

Countries of operation and supply

- 2.2 Charnwood Borough Council only operates in the United Kingdom. Due to the nature of the Council's business, the risk of slavery and human trafficking is considered low, however the Council remains vigilant to any potential risks.

High-risk activities

- 2.3 The Council considers that, due to the nature of its business and the policies/processes (see below) that are in operation, there are no areas of its business that are at high risk of slavery or human trafficking.

Responsibility

- 2.4 Responsibility for the Council's anti-slavery initiatives is as follows:

- Policies: These are developed by officers employed by the Council and are then agreed by the relevant board or committee.
- Risk assessments: These will be undertaken by officers within the relevant service area with support from, Designated Safeguarding Officers (DSO's), Human Resources and the Finance & Procurement Service, as required.
- Investigations / due diligence: Any concern regarding modern slavery or human trafficking should be raised with the Director of Finance, Governance and Contracts in the first instance.

3. Relevant Policies

- 3.1 The Council has the following policies in place to support its commitment to identifying and preventing slavery and human trafficking in its operations:

- Whistleblowing Policy and Procedure – The Council encourages all its workers, customers, and other business partners to report any concerns related to the direct activities, or the supply chains of the organisation. This includes any circumstances that may give rise to an enhanced risk of slavery or human trafficking. The Council's Whistleblowing Policy and Procedure is designed to make it easy for workers and suppliers to make disclosures, without fear of retaliation.
- Employee Code of Conduct – The Council's Code of Conduct makes clear to employees the actions and behaviour expected of them when representing the Council. The Council strives to maintain the highest standards of employee conduct and ethical behaviour. Any breaches are investigated, and action taken as necessary.
- Expectations of Suppliers – The Council is committed to ensuring that suppliers adhere to the highest standards of ethics. Suppliers are required to demonstrate that they provide safe working conditions where necessary, treat workers with dignity and respect, and act ethically and within the law in their use of labour. The Council works with suppliers to ensure that they meet the required standards. However, serious violations of these expectations will lead to the termination of the business relationship.
- Recruitment/ agency workers policy – The Council recruits its employees via its in-house recruitment function. New workers are thoroughly and properly vetted for their eligibility to work in the UK in accordance with the Home Office and Cabinet Office scrutiny Guidelines, as appropriate. Where agency workers are required, these are acquired through a managed service provider who verifies the practices of any new agency it is using before accepting workers from that agency. All recruitment of agency staff is undertaken in line with the Prevention of Illegal Working (which links to the Home Office requirements) and stipulates that any potential workers are checked by the relevant agency.

- Safeguarding Children & Adults at Risk of Harm – The Children's and Young People's Safeguarding Policy and Adult Safeguarding Policy and Procedures sets the Council's duty to spot the indicators of potential abuse amongst children and adults at risk of harm, which may include signs of trafficking or modern slavery.

4. Due Diligence

- 4.1 Charnwood Borough Council undertakes due diligence when considering taking on new suppliers. In relation to new suppliers, the following questions are issued as part of the procurement process:

5. Risk

- 5.1 Whilst the Council's activities are not considered to be in high-risk areas, as part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we will:
- Require all HR professionals to be suitably qualified in relation to recruitment procedures.
 - Require Learning & Development professionals to be suitably qualified in relation to training in recruitment and interviewing techniques.
 - Have in place appropriate procurement procedures and ensure that contracts with external providers have appropriate clauses
 - Keep under review supply chain and contract procedures
 - Ensure that in carrying out statutory functions, officers are aware of potential risks and have clear reporting lines.
- 5.2 Additionally, we have in place systems to:
- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains
 - Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
 - Monitor potential risk area in our supply chains
 - Protect whistle blowers.

6. Training and Awareness- Raising

- 6.1 The Council recognises that certain employees within the organisation should be required to complete awareness training in relation to modern slavery and human trafficking. This is currently included within the Silver and Gold Level Safeguarding' training, provided by the Council to officers, and further online e-learning has been provided by the Council to both elected Members and staff.
- 6.2 Additionally, the Council has published an awareness- raising document (produced by the Home Office) which is available to all employees and covers the following:
- The basic principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015
 - How to identify and prevent slavery and human trafficking
 - What external help is available (e.g., the Modern Slavery Helpline).

7. Our effectiveness in combatting slavery and human trafficking

- 7.1 We use the following to measure how effective we have been in ensuring that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in any part of our business or supply chains:
- Monitoring complaints
 - Monitoring training needs
 - Feedback from monitoring of corporate contracts

In order to assess performance and measure our effectiveness in combatting slavery and human trafficking, compliance will be monitored through the Equality Working Group, on a quarterly basis, and any mitigating action and/ or recommendations will be fed to the Senior Leadership Team, as appropriate.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 March 2024. It will be reviewed and updated annually.
