Please note: The information and advice contained in this form is not a formal legal determination under section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, and Charnwood Borough Council accepts no responsibility for any action taken arising from its use. If you require a written legal determination on the requirement for planning permission, an application for a Certificate of Lawful Proposed Development is required. Form 15 together with guidance can be downloaded from our website Charnwood Borough Council - Downloadable Forms or you can also make an online application through the Planning Portal . Applications for Planning Permission can also be submitted this way. To view the legislation please follow this link to The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (refer to Schedule 2, Part I, Class E).
Note: If you wish your proposal to be registered please return a copy of this completed form then we will record the information in our database and display on our website. Guidance: The term "original house" means the house as it was first built or as it stood on 1 July 1948 (if it was built before that date). Although you may not have built an extension to the house, a previous owner may have done so and you should check that there are no restrictive conditions on any planning decision relating to the property. Please follow this link to our interactive maps where you can check planning history, if “Permitted Development Rights” have been removed or if your property is in a Conservation Area or is a Listed Building. If your house is a Listed Building then Listed Building Consent is likely to be required even if planning permission is not necessary. Our Building Control department has also created a series of Self assessment forms for you determine whether or not the work you are intending to carry out is exempt from Building Regulations requirements.
